President's Column
Fran Goldman

"Leadership is the art of getting someone else to do something you want done because he wants to do it." Dwight Eisenhower

To assume the responsibility as a Temple president, one must be, I believe, a "meshuganah" optimist.

I would like to say, however, that my time in office has taught me a great deal and I am proud to have had the opportunity to serve as your President.

I've learned, to make a difference, and promote growth you can't do it alone.

I want to thank, Rabbi Adler, Cantor Beleniski, Cantor Wood and the TAS Choir for working tirelessly with me during the past two years.

During the past year, it was my pleasure, to have worked closely with Executive VP Linda Cooper. Her background and experience will be invaluable assets as she assumes the role of President.

A thank you to the Executive Board and the Board of Directors for your support and encouragement.

To our members, who volunteered to Chair, and work on the many committees, such as Anshei After Dark, Bikur Cholim, Catering, Communications, Fundraising, Finance, High Holiday Worker Bees, Library, Marketing, Membership, Men's Club, Office, Publicity, Ritual, Scholar in Residence, Sisterhood, Summer Season Series, Ticket Office sales, Yom HaShoah and Ushers, Thank you.

Thank you, as well to our competent, diligent and reliable Office and Bookkeeping Staff, and our dynamite Custodial Staff. To all of the aforementioned, your devotion, and hard work, allows TAS to resound with exuberance and excitement.

I discovered that good decisions are contingent upon experience, which is the ability to focus and includes making questionable decisions, which is all part of the learning process and growth.

I've learned that it is vital to be creative. "Because we always did it that way" is not an acceptable answer. We need to be willing to experiment, take risks, and yes, sometimes, fail. Never should we stop thinking, trying and dealing with the challenges of creating tomorrows' Temple today!

Shortly, the gavel will be presented to the next administration to record its story and to become a part of our legacy.

In conclusion, I want to thank our members, and again all the volunteers for the help, support and encouragement you gave me while I served as your President.

You have truly been "The Wind Beneath My Wings."

L'Shalom

Rabbi's Column
Rabbi Raphael Adler

What is the Hebrew word for history?

Give up? It is historia, which comes from the Greek. The absence in our Holy Tongue of such a crucial word is telling. Perhaps it is because the Jewish People do not have a history.

History is really his-story. Cold, unyielding facts of the past. We have "zikaron", or memory, the first two letters of which spell me. Memory to the Jew is personal. It is considerably more than history. Memory is not recalling the past - it is rather sanctifying and reliving it.

That is why a Passover Seder is more than an exercise in historical facts, it is a multi-sensory experience of memory. Chanukah, too, is not really a commemoration of past miracles, it conveys the message that light still vanquishes darkness, and religious freedom must be fought with courage and resolve even now.

Memory is central to Jewish sensibilities, it is also the faculty that makes us unique individuals. As we age, our memory often begins to soften and in advanced cases, we lose the ability to remember important aspects of our own identity.

While cognitive impairment is real, it is not irreversible. One of the leading cutting edge physicians in this field, is Dr. Mark Brody of Boynton Beach. He will be sharing with us his expert knowledge on memory during our December 9th Shabbat Morning services.

Please invite your friends and neighbors to join us as we engage in the sacred work of protecting and strengthening our power of memory.

SHALOM:

HOLD ON! Here comes the Temple Anshei Shalom Sisterhood with a very busy December and January.

Welcome back to all of our seasonal friends. Most of you should have received your membership renewal notice already. As I mentioned in an earlier column, the Sisterhood dues were increased from $20 to $25 per year. The reason for this increase is so that we can continue to provide free monthly programs to our members. Our first two speakers - Rabbi Adler and Andy Greenberg were absolutely great! The cost of the programs for non-members is $2.00.

I would like to welcome Sandy Jacobs to our Sisterhood Board. Sandy will be working with Jeanette Kanfer for the rest of the year and then she will assume responsibility for the Lifetime Membership Program. Thank you to Jeanette for all of her years of wonderful service and in particular for the poems that she created for us. I know we will still see Jeanette helping us out and greeting us with her wonderful Southern accent.

Our December meeting will be held on Monday the 18th and our special guest will be Cantor Bill Wood. Come join us for the meeting and you will get to enjoy our latkes!

In December, Millie has scheduled our annual trip to the Delray Playhouse and another trip to Miami, to visit the Jewish Museum and the Cuban Synagogue. By the time you get this issue, I am sure both events will be sold out but keep checking our flyers in the lobby to learn about more programs.

Here is our January schedule:

January 11th Sisterhood Brunch and Fashion Show - always a special event. Our menu will include an omelet station and "bubbly". Fashions will be from a number of different stores in order to suit everyone's taste. Come - you may just find that special outfit that you are looking for. Our own Sisterhood members will be the models - some have already signed up - if you would like to join them - please see Millie Grant or Roz Glickman.

January 15th - 9:30 - monthly membership meeting

January 27th - Sisterhood Shabbat

January 30th - trip to Miami, the Jewish Museum and Cuban Synagogue

January 31st - Tu B'Shevat Seder - In Israel, Tu B'Shevat marks the awakening of life in the trees, when buds begin to develop and new leaves grow. Come and celebrate with us - an opportunity to celebrate the bounty of this world and to celebrate our relationship with nature and each other. A beautiful time for reflection as we enjoy the fruits and nuts of the season and the four cups of grape juice. We will then have the opportunity to "schmooze" with each other and have fun! If you would like to be an active participant in the Seder, please let me know.

As you can see, the Board continues to plan a variety of activities for your participation and enjoyment.

If there is anything you would like us to include - please see one of our Board Members and we can determine if it is something that we can include on our calendar.

The Sisterhood Board and I would love to see you at all of our events.

Shalom Chaverim. I hope this finds you all well and recovered from the intense holiday season. We have many projects on tap for the next few months. We have decided that in the name of egalitarianism, we will encourage all members who come to the Bima have their heads covered. We have many Yarmulkes on hand as well as lace head coverings. In addition, the gift shop has many lovely head coverings designed just for women. This is not a mandate but we hope our congregants will cooperate. We are also in the process of cleaning the remaining two thirds of our talleisim, and will begin to schedule such cleanings three times per year.

This year we will celebrate Chanukah with Chanukiat (menorah) candle lighting, jelly donuts, and candy Chanukah gelt. The first night of Chanukah, December 12th, we will have a joint ceremony with Ruth Rales Jewish Family Services that will include some entertainment.

We will also have on a trial basis, facility for women attending the early Kabalat Shabbat to Bench Licht. We are still having problems getting ten people for that service, so I encourage you to attend from time to time.

Although we are considered a senior congregation and do not have standard Bar Mitzvahs, we have many members who can celebrate the anniversary of their ceremony. Traditionally, at age 83 people celebrate a second Bar or Bat Mitzvah, but it can be done at any time. We have had members from 63 to 93 doing so. Please think about it. It is a great simcha that we all would enjoy celebrating with you. You can read your Haftorah, read from the Torah, if you are able, or just rise for an Aliyah.

Finally, we are planning an Accessibility Shabbat for December 30, 2017.

And now I wish you all good health and happiness. Shalom Chaverim.

Deadline for the January KOL is Friday, Dec. 15th.

Lunch & Learn
Sylvia Eisner

The 2nd program in the Temple Anshei Shalom's Lunch and Learn Series will take place on Tuesday, December 12 at 12:00 Noon. You are invited to a delicious catered lunch followed by an enlightening presentation by Ms. Penny Herbst who will show and discuss the documentary film, "Ahead of Time, The Extraordinary Journey of Ruth Gruber". The film is a spellbinding story of the child of Russian Jewish immigrants at the turn of the 20th century who went on to earn a Doctorate at the age of twenty, and became a renowned photojournalist and author. Ruth Gruber witnessed and covered some of the 20th century's most pivotal events, including the heroic journey of the forty-five hundred Holocaust survivors on the Haganah ship, Exodus.

Ms.Herbst holds a Master's degree in Holocaust Studies, has taught at Gratz College, and was a docent at the Illinois Holocaust Museum and Education Center from its opening in 2009 until she moved to Florida in 2016.

Reservations for this program may be made at the Temple's ticket office Monday - Thursday, 9:30am-11:30am, or by calling 561-495-1300 ext. 4. The cost is $15 for Members and $20 for Non-Members. Reservations for December 12 must be made by December 7.

The Lunch and Learn Series will continue on the 2nd Tuesday of every month through March. Our January program, Tuesday, January 9 at 12:00 noon, will be another great lunch and a delightful presentation by Rabbi Abraham Eckstein, Rabbi Emeritus of the Little Neck Jewish Center, on the topic "What's in a Name?". Reservations must be made by January 4 for the January 9 program, so please plan ahead!

In conjunction with Jewish Family Services,
we have a bereavement group.
The group meets weekly, on
Tuesdays, at 10:30 am.

Paul Anka Tribute Show!

"Lou Villano is probably the best Paul Anka Tribute Performer in the country!"
—Reviewer Jay Shapiro

Headliner Lou Villano looks & sounds so much like Paul Anka, he earns standing ovations nationwide.

Sing along to Anka's Diana, Lonely Boy, Steel Guitar, The Longest Day, Destiny, My Hometown & Puppy Love.

Plus hits he wrote for Buddy Holly, Tom Jones, Sinatra. Favorites from Frankie Avalon, Bobby Darin & Bobby Rydell.

This magnetic Brooklyn boy drew raves at Parker Playhouse, Boca Black Box, Dix Hills Performing Arts Center, NYC's Laurie Beechman Theater, the Catskills and more. Come hear why!
