DON'T MAKE A MOVE WITHOUT ME!

President's Column

Linda Cooper

Shalom

Everyone is back safely from their wonderful and exciting Israel trip. They did a lot of sightseeing and learning. Please talk to the travelers about their trip. Thank you Sharon and Herb Levine and Rabbi and Fran Adler for all their hard work and planning to ensure that the trip was successful.

We had two very successful Seders which were enjoyed by about two hundred people each night. Thank you Rabbi Adler and Cantor Beliniski for leading the Seders. Also, thank you Florence Ull, Ruth Morwitz and Karan Marvin for taking reservations and arranging the table seatings.

Capital Campaign update: Our consultant has finished the feasibility study and shared the results with the Board of Directors. The goal set for the campaign is $500,000. We are now in the quiet phase of the campaign, which means that we are talking to congregants to determine how they can help the campaign both financially and through volunteering.

The Lifelong Learning series ended at the beginning of Pesach and will return on Monday, December 2nd, 2019. This season was great and next season will be even greater. Thank you Larry Feinberg.

Please join us on Thursday, May 2nd, at 2:00 pm for our Yom Hashoah program. The featured speaker will be Celie Halzel, a TAS member and child survivor. This year, following the commemoration, there will be a showing of the stirring film, "Eagles over Auschwitz".

Also, please join us for the TAS Summer Series. On Sunday, May 5th, at 2:00 pm, the sixty member Club Singers will perform and on Sunday, May 19th, at 2:00 pm, the 17 member Fusion Machine band will entertain us. Tickets are available in the ticket office.

Happy Mother's Day! Happy Lag B'Omer!

Kol Tov

Rabbi's Column

Rabbi Raphael Adler

I write these words from the Golan town of Katzrin, having just visited a second century Jewish community with a synagogue mentioned in the Talmud that has been recently excavated, with a sensory overload that is richly welcomed.

The story of Israel is commemorated in the next few weeks and etched into the psyche of the Jewish People through Lag B'Omer, Israel's Independence Day and Jerusalem Day.

The first recalls the final failed revolt of Judea until The modern settlement or Yishuv Movement in the 19th and 20th Centuries.

The second commemorates the victorious creation of Israel in May of 1948.

And the final, marks the liberation of Jerusalem in June of 1967.

Visiting Israel, these dates are not history, but rather alive in the stones and air around you. When one is in Israel, you are home. When you meet Israelis, you are in the presence of flesh and blood heroes who choose to live, defend, and love this land as an act of courage, defying a world that makes this act dangerous and believes it to be wrong. When you watch children at play, you are witnessing the words of our ancient prophets come alive. Around every bend and over each hill is something unforgettable and amazing that truly feels magical.

During this past week I have met a father, an immigrant from Russia, who's daughter's life was shattered by the Rimon terrorist bombing in Jerusalem. I have stood next to a world famous Pediatric Heart Surgeon, a recent arrival from Belgium saving lives at Hadassah Hospital. I ate dinner with an IDF Reserve Colonel who created a program known as Shomer Hadash, that protects farmers on the borders against Bedouin looters, as a mitzvah of reaching out to our brothers and sisters. And I have responded Amen to the fervent prayers of pious women touching the wall that

Dear Congregants,

It is that time of year again. We wish our "snowbirds" a safe trip returning to their other "home". We will miss you but know that you will miss us too. We had a wonderful season of lectures, movies, and shows and know, by your attendance, how much you enjoyed being with us. We look forward to your return.

Welcome to more new members:

Soldiers and civilians, young and old, religious and secular, every shade, political affiliation, and sub group you can imagine all joining together to have each other's back and renew this beautiful land forever, combine to make Israel the magical land that is both very old and very young.

I feel privileged to have shared this experience with our fellow Anshei Shalom members and I can't wait to return soon.

Until then, the memories of our two weeks in Israel will enable me to teach you and impart the special connection every Jew has to our Homeland.

I Care...You Care...We All Care...

Fran Goldman

Words...words...What kind of meaningful message could be delivered in three minutes?

Recently, I thought about a gentleman who spent 70 years, of his 92 years, writing. He reported news stories, and he eventually spent his years, from 1978-2011, delivering a three minute segment at the end of 60 Minutes.

Every Sunday evening, Andy Rooney would tell his story, and he would, simultaneously, deliver a message, which, at times, was controversial.

During the course of his appearances, he shared, with his viewers, things he learned.

I, in turn, would like to impart to you, Andy Rooney's "take," on life, and his "words of wisdom."

"I learned, I can't choose how I feel, but, I can choose what I can do about it."

"Everyone you meet deserves a smile."

"The best classroom in the world is at the feet of the elderly"

"Being kind is more important than being right."

"Under everyone's hard shell is someone who wants to be appreciated and to be loved."

"I've learned that just one person saying to me, "You've made my day!" "makes my day."

"Sometimes, all a person needs is a hand to hold, and a heart to understand."

"Love, not time, heals wounds."

"I've learned that life is tough, but I'm tougher."

"A smile is an inexpensive way to improve your looks."

"We All Care" listens, shares stories, holds hands, and delivers the comfort of Mitzvah Blankies. An act of kindness is contagious. No matter how small, it will not be forgotten.

Your act of kindness has the power to change a life, just by showing that you care.

Ritual

Mitchel Abramowitz

Boruch HaShem, we survived Pesach, reloaded our homes with chometz, and are preparing for the summer season with new hopes and aspirations. We wish a hearty au revoir and l'hitaot to our departed snowbirds, and all whose presence at the morning minyan added to its vibrancy and life. We look forward to their return in the fall.

Volunteer Torah readers for the morning minyan and to cover when Rabbi Polirer is absent have stepped in when needed. I wish to express my personal thanks and appreciation to new member and snowbird, Seymour Politinsky, regular members Rabbi Elaine Schnee and David Didner, whose Torah reading contributions were invaluable.

Repeating the request for anyone capable of reading a haftara, leading p'sukay d'zimra on Shabbat or holidays, being a baal tefilla or shaliach tsibur for the weekday morning or evening services or reading the megillot on the specific holidays, please contact the Ritual Committee at TASRitual@comcast.net, or Mitch directly at 215 514 1876.

The attendance at breakfast after the morning minyan every Wednesday has been enjoyed by all those attending. It is scheduled every Wednesday and is a great venue for meeting new friends and engaging in conversation. The attendance at the breakfast honoring Yona Alter after the morning minyan on March 25 was very well attended and enjoyed by all. For anyone wishing to commemorate a special occasion, sponsorships are available.

The Kitchen subcommittee under the chairmanship of Gayle Savitz and Hella Reitman will be scheduling orientation sessions to teach the workings of the kitchen to the volunteer monitors so they can observe the food servers at all times when food is served to assure the proper handling of the food, supplies and equipment.

A Golden Shabbat being conducted by congregants over the age of 90 is scheduled for May 25. A Junior Congregation service to be conducted by members under the age of 70 will be scheduled early next year. A Tu B'shevat seder, a musical presentation at the Friday evening service, instructions for Hagba and Glilla and Torah and Haftara chanting are in the planning stages. If you are interested in participating in any of these events, please contact the ritual committee. Keep your eyes and ears open for future developments.

As always, we are open to all suggestions and comments. With your cooperation and participation, we will continue to enjoy all the current and future activities at Temple Anshei Shalom.

Sisterhood

Linda Schultz & Gayle Savitz

By the time everyone reads this, we hope everyone has had a Zissen Pesach.

The March trip to the Cuban Miami Synagogue went well. The weather was lousy (it rained all day), but everyone enjoyed the day.

The fashion show at the end of March was enjoyed by all.

In April there will be no general meeting because of Passover.

In May, at the open meeting on May 20, Sisterhood will have Andrea Garofalo performing. This will be Sisterhood's MOTHER's Day program with candlelighting. It is also our last program until the Fall.

We will have another trip to the Cuban Miami Synagogue on June 8, by popular demand.

Upcoming, on Thursday, May 3, Sisterhood and Men's Club will be having their second annual Lag B'Omer indoor picnic.

Computer-Savvy Grandchildren Solve 89-Year-Old Family Mystery

Jan Schwartz

When Irving Friedman, 92, of Delray Beach, was co-honoree at a recent Israel Bonds breakfast at Temple Anshei Shalom, he was surrounded by 44 family members—including two half-brothers he didn't know existed a few months ago.

"I was the seventh of eight children, living in Manhattan and later in the Bronx," he recalls. "My father, Hyman Friedman, abandoned the family when I was three, vanishing without a trace. We never knew why and as the years passed, we thought we would never have the answer."

Irving's mother, Sophie, raised her children alone and saw each of them grow into successful adults. Irving became a school social worker and raised four daughters before retiring to Florida with his late wife Evelyn in 1996. His only surviving sibling, Jean, 102, lives in West Palm Beach.

Irving and Evelyn became active at Temple Anshei Shalom, Irving serving as President of both the Temple and its Men's Club. He is a current Board member and sings in the choir. He was content but never stopped being curious about the dad who had disappeared.

Then, six months ago in Rockland County, NY, Irving's granddaughter, Jenna, submitted a DNA sample on Ancestry.com. Soon after, her mother got a phone call from Avi Frier, of Hollywood, Florida, who had also signed on with Ancestry.com and found he was likely related to the Friedman family.

The pieces of the family puzzle began falling into place, including some startling coincidences. It was discovered that when Hyman Friedman left his first family, he moved to Baltimore, changed his name to Frier and started a second family. He had two more sons, Ralph and Lenny, who live in Baltimore. Avi Frier is Ralph's son and the grandson of Hyman Friedman/Frier.

Though neither knew it at the time, Irving and Avi had crossed paths three years earlier when Avi, a professional comedic magician, performed at one of our Anshei After Dark events.

Similarly, Irving's half-brother Lenny Frier is a snowbird, residing in the Coral Lakes community in Delray Beach during the winter months. When he's in Delray, he frequently attends Shabbat services—at Temple Anshei Shalom.

"It's stunning to think I might have been sitting next to my half-brother so many times without knowing it," Irving says. Today, the Friedmans and Friers are making up for lost time. Irving and Lenny now sit together on Shabbat. "Who expects to find two new brothers and a wonderful new extended family at my age?" Irving says. "Though we were strangers most of our lives, we are family now."

Irving's co-honoree at the Israel Bonds breakfast was our own Arthur H. Greenwald, recognized for his extensive, longtime efforts on behalf of Jewish War Veterans on the local, state and national levels.

A Bio on our Featured Speaker

Celie Lackner Heinisch Halzel is a child survivor of the Holocaust. She was born in Radautz, Rumania prior to the start of World War II. Celie grew up in her adopted home in Halifax, Nova Scotia, Canada. She attended college in Montreal where she earned a Master's Degree in Hebrew Education. She taught Hebrew and Jewish studies for over 40 years in Canada, in an immigrant village near Jerusalem, and in several communities in the US.

By dedicating her life to touching the minds and hearts of young people through Jewish education, she hopes that she deserved to have been one of a small remnant of Holocaust survivors.

Celie has shared her story with many children's groups both Jewish and non-Jewish. She has also addressed many Hadassah groups in the area, as well as Magen David Adom, ORT and the College of Arts and Letters at FAU. In retirement she has enjoyed volunteering at Menorah House, Temple Anshei Shalom and serving as VP of Education for Orah Delray Hadassah.

Celie and her husband enjoy travelling especially to Israel where they met while spending their junior year of college studying in Jerusalem.

One More Year

Today, I'm 90, dear mighty Lord
I still have tasks to be done
I'd get so much accomplished
If I lived to be 91.
I appreciate my venerable age,
A privilege granted to few
but I would rejoice with all my heart
If I could attain 92.
So many simchas I want to attend
These happy events I want to see
To revel in the joys of others
Is it too much to ask for 93?
I'm curious by nature
And my spirits would definitely soar
If I could witness new inventions
But than I'd have to live to 94.
Forgive my wanting even more
To live is a natural drive
But it is only with God's blessing
That He will grant me 95.
I'd like to serve my fellowman
If my mind retains its tick
I'd be ecstatic if I could live
To the age of 96.
I've done my mitzvahs and followed the Book
I assume I'll go to Heaven
But I don't mind postponing the move
Until I'm 97.
I know by then I won't be fast
And sometimes I'll be late
I don't mind being a statistic
Until I'm 98.
I'm not a greedy person
I'm only making "Time"
Another blessing, another year
And then I'd be 99.
Buy why stop at 99
When a century sounds so good
So with the humblest entreaty I pray
Please make it 100, if you could

Freda J. Hodes

A Word About Volunteering Paulette Ballin

Hello Temple Anshei Shalom! I am writing to you about Volunteering in the Temple.

We have an excellent office staff, Melissa (Office Administrator), Jannette and Joanne (Bookkeeper), who work together to help the Temple run efficiently and effectively. Sometimes we need help answering phones, writing thank you notes and stuffing envelopes. You are welcome to join this group of volunteers. Call Melissa to offer help.

We have wonderful people who staff the Ticket Office. They sell tickets to Sisterhood, Men's club, Anshei After Dark, Dinners, Lunches, Performances, Trips and many events that the Temple sponsors. We can ALWAYS have more volunteers. You are welcome to join the group of people who donate a few hours of their time to work in the Ticket Office. Call Ilene Oppenheimer to offer help.

I want to also add that we have Ladies who volunteer in the gift shop to help sell jewelry and other items for Sisterhood. Call Gayle to offer help.

Besides volunteering in the above ways, YOU are always welcome to join the group of people who attend Minyan in the morning and/or the evening. Remember, YOU are counted and needed to help fulfill the obligations for those who are in mourning and for those who need or want to say Kaddish.

As our "season" is coming to an end, the activity in the Temple slows down. The Wednesday movies will continue and there are a few events still being scheduled for the Summer. Call Carol Marcus to join Anshei After Dark.

I know that many of the committees will be planning for next year. Your membership entitles you to join any of our volunteer groups.

Plan to join Men's Club, Sisterhood, Anshei After Dark, Ritual, Membership, Library, Choir, or Fundraising. You can attend lectures, movies, shows and get to meet new people and become more than just a member, you can become part of our TAS Family!!

Have a WONDERFUL Summer and see you in the Fall!!

Temple Anshei Shalom

Testimonial

"I want to thank you for introducing me to the Invisalign procedure. I was impressed as to how quickly I began to see the results. Being able to whiten my teeth while I was wearing the appliances was very convenient."
