President's Column

Linda Cooper

Shalom

It was great to see so many of you at services, classes, movies and events this past month.

With all these activities going on at Temple, the building is now showing its age of almost 40 years. Right now, our greatest need is replacing the roof. The part of the roof over the Chapel and Sanctuary requires immediate attention. There are also structural elements that are in need of replacement.

Our Capital Campaign, which is now in its initial stages, is designed to raise funds to cover the expenses of replacement, repairs and remodeling. When you are asked to help us financially, please give generously so that we take care of our immediate needs and prepare for our next 40 years.

Temple security is another important project. Two of our members, Jan and Bill Schwartz, have spent many hours gathering information and writing a grant application to obtain funds to harden our defenses. The application first goes to the Florida Division of Emergency Management (FL FEMA) for approval. All applications are then graded and forwarded to the Department of Homeland Security/FEMA on the federal level where the final decisions are made. This process is open to all nonprofit organizations in the country. Since the shootings in Pittsburgh, PA and Poway, CA, there is fierce competition for the funds. This process will take several months. These funds are for security equipment only. It is hoped that with all their hard work, we will receive some funding. Thank you again, Jan and Bill Schwartz.

Now for part three of this article. We have been approached by Ruth and Norman Rales Jewish Family Services to do a feasibility study of our campus, since they have outgrown their location in Boca Raton. One option to be considered is to determine the possibility to develop some plans for expansion on Temple grounds which already houses the Weisman Center. JFS will pay for the feasibility study and will then share the results with us. The Temple Board of Directors voted unanimously to proceed. Once the results are obtained, which may take 3 to 6 months, we will share them with the congregation. Temple Anshei Shalom will always remain Temple Anshei Shalom.

Have a great summer! Remember, TAS will be open all summer. See you in Temple.

Kol Tov

Rabbi's Column

Rabbi Raphael Adler

Israel sneaks up on you when you least expect it with a tug at the heart and a wellspring of tears. Have you ever toured an Israel Naval Forces submarine? Of course not, unless you were with us in Haifa. At the Navy Museum, a former skipper of the INS Gal, now a retired admiral gave us the VIP treatment on his beloved "fish".

I asked him how long he was submerged, and he told me up to three weeks at a time. Seders, Yom Kippur, Shabbat were all observed deep under the ocean. He pointed to a small area and said that this is our synagogue. A metal closet had a sign "Aron HaKodesh". It was an Ark with a Torah. Only in an Israeli submarine.

When we ponder the ease of visiting Israel, a non-stop jet from Miami to Ben Gurion via El Al is all we have to worry about. But climbing on board the only surviving clandestine, illegal immigration ship that averted the British and secretly made its way from Europe to Palestine, carrying survivors of the Holocaust, we are brought back to a frightening Pre-State era. The "Af Al Pe Kein" is a living time warp. Remaining exactly as it was when homeless Jews made the perilous voyage home, never knowing if they would be sunk by the British or sent to a detention camp in Cypress. The cramped wooden sleeping quarters looked to us and must have seemed to the passengers like concentration camp barracks, and yet as the ship's name reads-even so we endured and survived and thrived.

When we offer Kabbalat Shabbat, the traditional service on Friday Evening, often we are reminded of Tzfat, that holy mystical town where the Lecha Dodi was composed. We experienced a breathtaking sunset on those ancient cobblestoned hills.

However, now when I celebrate Shabbat, the image of Tel Aviv forms an indelible picture in my mind. Yes, hectic, secular Tel Aviv.

On our hotel veranda, overlooking the boardwalk and beach, with throngs of electric scooting, bike riding, dog walking, building sand castles, and other leisure activities going on as we prayed together, I was struck by what an amazing experience we were having.

Everyone was Jewish. Everyone was celebrating Shabbat in their own way, and everyone was playing their active role in the vibrant miracle of the rebirth of Israel. Anywhere else it would just be a beach scene, but here on Friday night, it was a joy to behold.

The laughter of the children, the soft sounds of Hebrew conversation, and the couples strolling hand in hand in Israel represent no less than the Prophets words transformed into reality. I can't wait to return. Perhaps you will join me!

Am Yisrael Chai and enjoy your summer.

Men's Club

Bob Rothman

This is a brief summary of the Men's Club activities for the last few months. It should be an inspiration for all old and new members to look forward to participation in the exciting activities of the next season.

February 23 was the Second Annual Men's Club Shabbat when the entire service was conducted by its members. The next one is scheduled for February 22, 2020, so get your requests for participation in early.

The trip to the FITTEAM BALLPARK OF THE PALM BEACHES in North Palm Beach to see the Red Sox play the Nationals on March 5th was sold out and was a great success. This will be repeated next year so watch the carousel for details.

On March 17th, the occasion honoring Sheldon Singer as the Men's Club Man of the Year, was highlighted by a presentation by TAS member, Sandy Didner with a review of her book, "The Conspiracies of Dreams".

The April brunch on the 7th featured Rabbi Tirtzah Israel, a new member of our Temple. She told her remarkable story of what inspired her to become a Rabbi.

On May 19th, Anthony Krisman, also a member of our Temple, related his experiences about growing up Jewish in England. The drawing of the winning tickets of the annual Men's Club raffle culminated this affair. Later that same day, many members departed for the Palm Beach Jewish Federation sponsored Jewish Heritage Baseball Game to watch the Miami Marlins play the New York Mets.

On May 23, the second annual Lag B'Omer picnic, a joint production by the Sisterhood and Men's Club was enjoyed by the entire congregation membership.

These interesting events occur on the third Sunday of every month. The cost, including a hearty breakfast and a chance for a door prize, is $10.00 for members and $12.00 for non-members. If you are past your first year of Temple membership and have not yet done so, please pay your Men's Club dues. It is the biggest bargain in town. Mark your calendars for attending these wonderful presentations. Come and bring your wives, your male and female friends and guests.

Spaces are still available for the Caribbean Cruise sponsored by the Man's Club on Celebrity Silhouette, scheduled for December 1-13, 2019. Pick up a flyer at the Carousel in the lobby.

The ever-popular Palm Beach Coupon book will be available for the 2020 edition.

Ritual

Mitchel Abramowitz

The Kabbalat Shabbat service on Friday, May 10 was highlighted by a non-instrumental musical service, "Traditional Shabbat with Contemporary Sounds," conducted by TAS member, Rabbi/Cantor Bertram Kieffer. Additional Friday evening musical services may be scheduled during the summer when Shabbat starts later.

The first annual Golden Shabbat being conducted by congregants over the age of 90 took place on May 25 with the invaluable assistance of Barbara Kirshner and Harriet DeCosta. The first annual Junior Congregation Shabbat, to be conducted by members under the age of 70, is scheduled for Feb 29, 2020. If you qualify and are interested in participating, please contact the Ritual Committee.

The entire congregation gives thanks of appreciation to those members who come forth to read the Torah at the daily minyan, during Passover and Shavuot and other times when Rabbi Poliner is absent. When you greet David Didner, Rabbi Elaine Schnee, Marilyn Silberstein, Jack Weiss, Seymour Politinsky, Peter Levine, Nathan Taubenfeld and Rabbi Adler, give them a hearty "Yasher Koach". If you are capable and willing to read Torah, please notify the Ritual Committee and you will be added to the list. Your talents are appreciated.

If you are interested in learning how to read Haftara or Torah, please contact the Ritual Committee. If you know how and wish to participate in any service, please contact the Ritual Committee.

The Chanukkah 2019 celebration will certainly repeat and exceed the success of the 2018 affair created and produced by Andy Greenberg & Judy Koles.

Breakfast after morning minyan will restart after Sukkot. Be prepared to enjoy conversation and camaraderie every Wednesday after minyan.

The Temple's Sukkah will be made available to congregants wishing to eat in a Sukkah during the holiday. The rules, regulations and restrictions for the use of the Sukkah will be posted shortly. Watch the carousel for information.

Kitchen – The reorganization of both kitchens is ongoing under the direction of Mitchel Abramowitz, Ritual VP, Gayle Savitz, Hella Reitman and Susan Lubliner. They will be scheduling orientation sessions to teach the workings of the kitchen to volunteer monitors so they can observe the food servers at all times when food is served to assure proper handling of food, supplies and equipment. A monitor will be in the kitchen at all times when food is being served or dispensed.

The Ritual Committee can be contacted at "TASritual@comcast.net" and Mitchel Abramowitz, Ritual VP at 215 514 1876.

Security

Mort Cooper

In 2018, there were approximately 6.8 million Jews living in the U.S., which is about 2.1 % of the total population. Also, in 2018, there were 1879 incidents against Jews or Jewish institutions. Last year, in Pittsburgh, PA, 11 members of Tree of Life Synagogue were killed and 7 injured, This year, in Poway, CA, 1 person was killed and 3 injured at a Chabad.

Temple Anshei Shalom will continue to have two armed guards on duty during Friday night and Saturday morning services. This decision will help give you continued peace of mind and continued safety. We are working diligently to harden our defenses. At the beginning of May, a grant application was submitted to the Department of Homeland Security for funds to purchase equipment such as cameras, monitors, motion detectors, improved lighting, etc. This application was written by Jan and Bill Schwartz. They did a great job in a short period of time.

You may have noticed that some chairs against the gray divider at the back of the Sanctuary have been removed and the spaces left empty to accommodate folded walkers during services. There are now no obstructions in the aisles. I, the Committee, others with walkers and those carrying the Torahs thank you. It may be an inconvenience to some, but it is for increased safety, security and adherence to Fire Department regulations. Remember to put prominent identification tape or tags on your walkers as many look very similar. One of our members counted an average of 40 walkers and canes for three consecutive weeks during Shabbat morning services. If you need help with your walker, hold up your hand and somebody will assist you.

Summer is quickly approaching and, as much as I hate to remind you, hurricane season begins June 1. Start getting your supplies now and make sure you have matches or a lighter, flashlight and batteries, and a hand-operated can opener!

Sisterhood

Linda Schultz & Gayle Savitz

Shalom!

It's hard to believe that Sisterhood just had its last meeting of the season, but we are far from done with bringing activities to you.

Our May meeting was very special. The beautiful candle lighting ceremony honoring our mothers was held. The meeting ended on a high note having actor, writer, producer and singer Andrea Garofalo singing "Pop to Opera".

Sisterhood and Men's Club outdid themselves at the Lag B'Omer Picnic. Dinner by Diamond Caterers was great and entertainment by Wally Childs was even better.

Sisterhood's next event is the bus trip to Miami on June 18th. Space is still available, so buy your tickets, costing $69, in the Ticket Office Monday-Thursday, 9:30am-11:30 am.

Join us Thursday, August 15, 2019 for our summer card/game party/luncheon. Get a group together, have those wonderful meatballs (or veggie cutlet or turkey) play whatever game you choose and have a fun afternoon. Cost for this fun event is only $25. Deadline is August 12th.

There will also be an overnight trip to Florida's west coast in August. Details are being worked on. Check the carousel in the temple for further details.

As always, visit the Judaica Shop and check out the beautiful merchandise. If you need a gift don't forget the Judaica shop. The shop is now fully staffed as we welcome our newest volunteer, Gail Cohen. If you wish to be trained as a "back-up" contact Bobbi Rosenzweig.

Sisterhood could not survive without its volunteers. A huge thank you to the Board of Directors, everyone who helped at our monthly meetings, gift shop and ticket office volunteers and everyone who helped Sisterhood in any way. We can't do it without you.

Have a wonderful summer, stay safe and look for our forthcoming events next season.

Leadership in the Temple

Are you interested in getting more involved in Temple life? Are you a new or recent member (or even more seasoned member) who has questions about what we do and how we do it? There are so many committees and groups that meet, and we need leaders who have experience and/or who are interested in getting involved and becoming future leaders of the Temple.

I will give you pointers on how to lead or chair a committee. I will help you find the committee that would best fit your interests. We NEED EVERYONE who is willing to get involved.

If you look at the KOL, you will see all the groups that meet in the building. You will also see the names of the chairs of those groups. If you have experience or would like to get more involved with the decision making of those groups, WE WANT YOU!!!! (No, I am not going to recruit you, only ASK THAT YOU CALL ME).

Please either call the office (561-495-1300) or my home (561-270-3357) to give me your name/email/phone and the best time to meet.

Remember, that without leaders we cannot exist. We need to work together to secure our future at TAS.

In conjunction with Jewish Family Services,
we have a bereavement group.
The group meets weekly, on
Tuesdays, at 10:30 am.

I Care...You Care...We All Care...

"Prayer for Healing"

In my illness, Lord, I turn to You, for I am Your Creation.

Your strength and courage are in my spirit, and Your powers of healing are within my body.

May it be Your will to restore me to health.

In my illness I have learned what is great and what is small.

I know how dependent I am upon You.

My own pain and anxiety have been my teachers.

May I never forget this precious knowledge when I am well again.

Heal me, Lord and I shall be healed, save me and I shall be saved.

Comfort me, Lord, and shelter me in Your love.

Blessed are You, Lord, the faithful and merciful Healer. Amen

Sometimes, we find it difficult to select appropriate words to express our feelings. We sincerely wish, from the bottom of our hearts, that a person who is ill, will recover quickly. We know how we feel; however, often, we don't know how to communicate those feelings.

It's not easy to find the right words, and that is when we feel, at times, ill at ease, as we convey our thoughts. Words of encouragement and strength can help when we face personal adversity. Words can help bring hope, words can give you courage when life's road is difficult. Encouraging words give us the ability to fight back, and move forward. In conclusion, here are just a few examples of words that can make a difference in someone's day.

Take one day at a time, and in no time you will be healthy.

Thinking of you often, and hoping for your speedy recovery.

We're here for you, and we stand beside you, as you regain your health.

The We All Care committee, including our Mitzvah Knitters, Get Well card writer, and our Community connectors wish you a wonderful summer.

A brilliantly refashioned fairy tale and a magnificently funny farce — only seems like a radical departure of form, for behind the laughter, Helprin speaks of leaps of faith and second chances, courage and the primacy of love.

A Word About Volunteering

Paulette Ballin

Yom Hashoa Committee

Les Schwartz

Hello Temple Anshei Shalom! I am writing to you about Volunteering in the Temple.

We have an excellent office staff, Melissa (Office Administrator), Jannette and Jo Anne (Bookkeeper), who work together to help the Temple run efficiently and effectively. Sometimes we need help answering phones, writing thank you notes and stuffing envelopes. You are welcome to join this group of volunteers. Call Melissa to offer help.

We have wonderful people who staff the Ticket Office. They sell tickets to Sisterhood, Men's club, Anshei After Dark, Dinners, Lunches, Performances, Trips and many events that the Temple sponsors. We can ALWAYS have more volunteers. You are welcome to join the group of people who donate a few hours of their time to work in the Ticket Office. Call Ilene Oppenheimer at the Temple to offer help.

I want to also add that we have ladies who volunteer in the gift shop to help sell jewelry and other items for Sisterhood. Call Gayle at the Temple to offer help.

Besides volunteering in the above ways, YOU are always welcome to join the group of people who attend Minyan in the morning and/or the evening. Remember, YOU are counted and needed to help fulfill the obligations for those who are in mourning and for those who need or want to say Kaddish.

As our "season" is coming to an end, the activity in the Temple slows down. The Wednesday movies will continue and there are a few events still being scheduled for the Summer. Call Carol Marcus at the Temple to join Anshei After Dark.

I know that many of the committees will be planning for next year. Your membership entitles you to join any of our volunteer groups.

Plan to join Men's Club, Sisterhood, Anshei After Dark, Ritual, Membership, Library, Choir, or Fundraising. You can attend lectures, movies, shows and get to meet new people and become more than just a member, you can become part of our TAS Family!!

Have a WONDERFUL Summer and see you in the Fall!!

30th Anniversary of TAS Holocaust Memorial

Jan Myles Schwartz

As we celebrate the 30th anniversary of the beautiful monument on the grassy island just outside our front door, many TAS members might not know some interesting facts about it.

It was dedicated in 1989 (just five years after the synagogue was completely finished) by congregants, friends and Holocaust survivors of Temple Anshei Shalom. It is dedicated to "the millions of martyred men, women and children who perished during the Holocaust Period, 1939-1945."

The 3,000-pound, copper sculpture sits on a hexagon mortar base, faced with granite. It contains the ashes of a Holocaust survivor along with prayer books and talleisim that were salvaged from the Holocaust. Six vertical arches represent the 6 million Jews who perished during the Holocaust.

Survivor Abe Peseck came up with the idea. Temple officials voted to donate the grounds for its use. A 12-member fundraising committee spent three years raising money to pay for it.

Hungarian artist Ferenc Varga, whose parents were Holocaust survivors, spent a year creating it. The word "remember" is engraved on the sculpture in English and Hebrew.

The monument was severely damaged by vandals in 1994. After repairs were made, brick pavers and landscaping were added, along with bench seating for meditation, thanks to the generosity of donors.

After each Yom Hashoah program at TAS, attendees walk in procession to the monument for the Mourner's Kaddish, songs and blowing of the Shofar.

Introducing:

TAS “Legacy Legends”

Jan Myles Schwartz

“Legacy Legends” is a new recognition program designed to salute individuals who designate Temple Anshei Shalom as a beneficiary in a will, trust, annuity or other financial instrument.

“Our Temple has benefited in the past from devoted congregants who left their mark by earmarking a gift for TAS,” says Irwin Schultz, who initiated the new program. “But we don’t want to wait until someone is gone before we show our appreciation for their generous intentions. Through “Legacy Legends”, we can say ‘thank you’ now.”

One of the program’s elements is a new KOL column, “Legacy Legends” where benefactors, who are willing, will share their motivation for making TAS a beneficiary. There is no minimum amount to qualify for the recognition program. To kick off “Legacy Legends”, here’s the story of member Renee S. Gere who has made TAS her primary beneficiary.

“I moved to Florida after my husband Kenny died. Though I hadn’t been active with a Synagogue in Connecticut for several years, I had been active previously, even serving as Second Gabbai. I missed the sense of community. I called TAS before coming for a Shabbat morning service to make sure Miss Tish, my service dog, would be welcome and was told yes. However, several attendees that morning made us feel very unwelcome.

“But I didn’t want to give up on TAS. So I summoned my courage and went into the office to describe my experience. Within 15 minutes, Fran Goldman phoned to invite me to a Friday evening service. And she made sure my reception was much different.

“After that, I never left. The Temple has truly become my family. Whenever I’ve needed a shoulder to cry on, a late night ride to the ER or drug store, a bowl of chicken soup, a friend to go with me on a trip to and back from Orlando to pick up my aunt...whatever I’ve needed, someone from TAS has been there. From Paulette, to Rabbi Adler and Frannie, to Gayle and others. And Miss Tish feels at home, too.

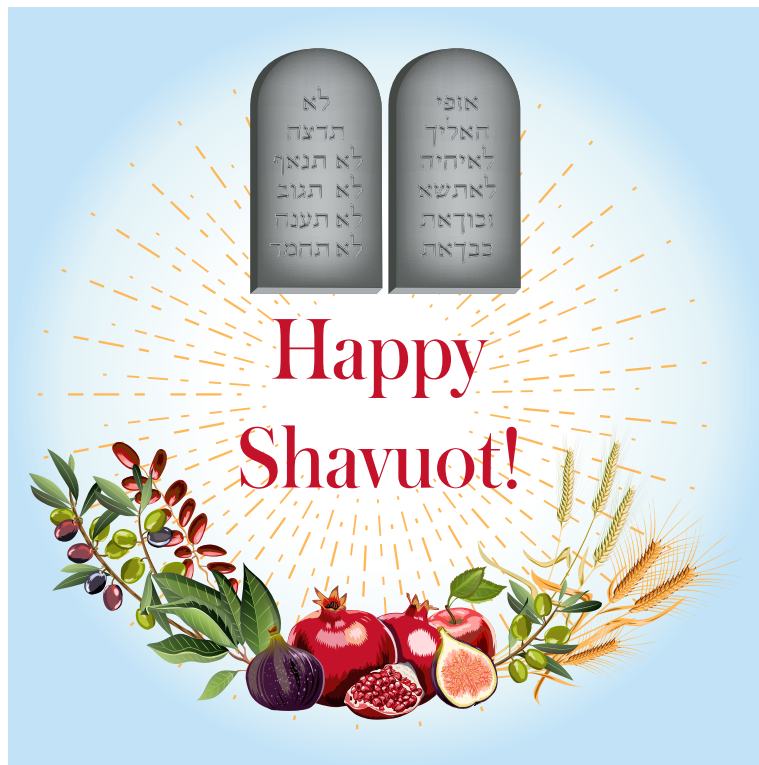

“In 2016, I met with trust attorney Jami Huber in Boca to establish a trust, a fairly easy process. Since Kenny and I had no children and my brother, nieces and nephews are fine financially, I decided to leave a significant percentage of my estate to my Temple family. The balance is going to MasonicCare in Wallingford, Connecticut, who cared for Kenny. Miss Tish has her own trust. Some people have asked me if a Synagogue is as deserving as a medical research or social service charity. I tell them Temple Anshei Shalom has become my second home and the people here are my family. What can be more deserving than that? Sure, we’ve had some spats--who doesn’t argue with family? But I know they will always be there for me.

“A saying by Richard Bach sums it up for me: ‘The bond that links your true family is not one of blood but of respect and joy in each other’s life.’”
